DISCIPLINE

Safety is our top priority. To preserve the health and safety of our patrons, we have rules that need to be enforced. Disregard or lack of respect toward Park and Recreation employees, abusive language, unlawful acts such as theft, vandalism, or assault will result in an indefinite suspension.

In the pool area, the lifeguard will blow a short whistle blast for minor offenses and will reprimand the offender. For repeat or more serious offense, the offender may be asked to sit out for a designated period of time. If the offender cannot stay within our safety guidelines, they will be asked to leave for the day.

We have the right to terminate use of the facility and revoke passes if the offender's actions are serious or repetitive.
